+ JIM LAWRENCE TRADITIONAL IRONWORKS

WORKSHOP ASSISTANT

I worked a wide variety of different positions as a full time workshop assistant and, as a result, have a unique skill set. Some of my achievements:

- Acquired TIG welding skills and applied them on the job.
- Operation of large industrial equipment such as CNC Milling and Spinning machines, showcasing a good foundational understanding of highly precise manufacturing.
- Conducted powder coating for steel products. Demonstrating versatility when contributing to different stages of the production process.
- Maintained a clean and organised workshop, prioritising safety and efficiency in workshop.
- Demonstrated expertise in the careful handling of large and heavy materials, ensuring a safe and productive working environment.
- Skilful and proficient handling of workshop sharp machinery such as a mechanical hacksaw.

JAN 2021-
JUL 2023

+ REFERENCE CLOTHING

FOUNDER

I founded Reference Clothing with the aim of developing my creative and entrepreneur skills, along side completing my A-Levels. What I did in this role:

- Developed Web Design and Wordpress skills in order to create and maintain the brand's e-commerce site.
- Coordinated with international suppliers to optimise the supply chain for efficiency and timely product delivery.
- Facilitated smooth import processes by collaborating with border control authorities.
- Proficient in marketing and brand communication strategies, promoting the brand and engaging with the target audience effectively.
- Used Adobe Creative Cloud to design garment tech packs and various brand materials, ensuring a cohesive brand identity throughout.
- Minted non-fungible tokens (NFTs) on the OpenSea blockchain platform, showing an understanding of emerging technologies.

FEB 2022 -
AUG 2022

+ DEDHAM BOATHOUSE

WAITER & BOAT BOY

Through being a part time waiter, I improved my communication skills with customers and my team. I learnt how to multitask and work under time pressures, while ensuring a high level of customer service.
